RE: Bill Brantley, Todd Tolbert, Rodney Jones and Anthony Martin v. Cinergy Corp.
Case No. C-1-01-378

Dear Counsel:

I am writing to follow up related to our March 31, 2003 correspondence wherein we reiterated our request for supplementation of your clients' responses to Defendant, Cinergy Corp.'s, First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents to each named plaintiff as originally outlined in our January 31, 2003 correspondence. (courtesy copy of 1/31/03 correspondence attached hereto). The responses were to be forwarded on or before March 28, 2003 per the terms of the Court's Calendar Order.

In our March 31, 2003 correspondence, we requested that you supplement your responses in the next two weeks on or before April 14, 2003 or it would be necessary for us to schedule a conference call or appearance with the court. We have been discussing the terms of the mediation in the interim. As you are aware, discovery is not stayed in the Brantley suit as a condition of the mediation. Accordingly, we are interested in the immediate supplementation of your responses. We also request this supplementation in advance of the mediation scheduled on May 19-20, 2003 for purposes of our evaluation of the claims of the named plaintiffs in the Brantley matter.

As we outlined in our March 31, 2003 correspondence, it is the position of the defendant that Plaintiff, Tolbert's, wife therapy records are both relevant and reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Your client testified at deposition that his work experience "caused a big stress level at home" and that he was short-tempered, very argumentative and wasn't a pleasant person to be around. He expressly testified "My wife started going to a psychiatrist to help her deal with me” and that he is claiming those expenses in this lawsuit. (Tolbert depo, Vol. II, pp. 399-400). A medical authorization form to Cyna Khalily, M.D. was enclosed in our March 31, 2003 correspondence.

Please advise if we need to schedule a phone conference with the court or a date certain in which we can expect the supplementation. We look forward to your immediate response.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jill T. O'Shea". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

RE: Bill Brantley, Todd Tolbert, Rodney Jones and Anthony Martin v. Cinergy Corp.
Case No. C-1-01-378

Dear Paul:

We are interested in supplementation of your client's discovery response. We are also interested in updating the complete medical and employment records of your clients through the use of executed authorization forms. It is my practice to provide opposing counsel with copies of all of the records obtained.

PLAINTIFF, BILLY BRANTLEY

With respect to plaintiff, Bill Brantley, we are interested in the following supplementation:

Interrogatory No. 1. State the name and present or last known address and telephone number of each person whom you will or expect to call as an expert witness during the trial of this matter, and provide a summary of the opinions to be rendered by each such expert witness. Also, list the qualifications of each expert witness or, alternatively, attach a copy of a curriculum vitae of each such witness.

Please supplement your response.

Interrogatory No. 2. State the name and present or last known address and telephone number of each person whom you will or expect to call as a non-expert witness during the trial of this matter, and provide a summary of the testimony expected from each.

Please supplement your response.

Interrogatory No.4. State whether or not written statements were made by you of any other witnesses concerning the incident or incidents which are the subject of your Complaint.
